A PROBABLY FATAL ACCIDENT

A report was received in this city yesterday of a probably fatal hunting accident that occurred at an early hour

yesterday morning at Captine Island, s well known locality down the river.

Mr. Houston Lindsey and his son

Mr. Houston Lindsey and his son Elisha, who live about one mile and a half below Moundsville, had gone to this Island to hunt ducks and were having a fairly good run of luck when Elisha's gun was accidentally discharged. The greater portion of the load struck the young man in the neck, making a horrible looking wound, and probably a fatal one. It was some time before a physician could be secured, and in the meantime the young man lost a large amount of blood, which tended to greatly weaken him and add to the doubt of his recosery. As soon as help could be had the young man was removed to his home. It was not learned just how the gun happened to be discharged.

There were five cases disposed of at yesterday morning's Police Court. F. Kelley, who raised a disturbance at Mrs. Ditty's place in Alley C Saturday night, and had his case continued from Monday morning's session in order to hunt up some witnesses whose testimony he assured the court would relieve him of the charge made against him, failed to find his witnesses and was fined $5 and costs, which he paid. Thomas Callahan, who of late has gotten to be quite a regular attendant at this court, was up on the same old charge, drunkenness, and was fined $1 and costs. In default of payment he went to the hill for ten days. John Smith, John Donel, and John Dofilt, the names given by a drunken trio run in by Scally, were fined $1 and costs and in default of payment sent to the workhouse for fifteen days cash.

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to send enclosed by the direction of the Board of Gas Trustees of the City of Wheeling, an account against Mr. Oscar Seeley in favor of the city, made under the administration of a former Board of to amend by inserting $100,000 instead of $55,000, which motion prevailed. On the final passage of the ordinance as amended, the vote was, aye, Messrs. Caldwell, Campbell, Emshelmer, Faris, Farrell, Haller, Handland, Happy. In the Second Branch Messrs. These gentlemen were all of the opinion that the amendment was put on simply as a rider to kill the ordinance at the polls. Several members, however, expressed the belief that non-concurence in the $100,000 amendment would result in the death of the ordinance in the First Branch. Seeley in favor of the city, made under the administration of a former Board of Gas Trustees and amounting to $749.01. The account is not subject to the control of the present Board of Gas Trustees, but as the materials entering into the same are properly subject to the control of your Board, and ought to be in the care and keeping of this Board, the present Board of this Board, the present Board respectfully refer the same to your honorable body for whatever disposition of the same the Council may deem best. The account is made up from memoranda kept by Mr. Samuel M. Darrah, the Superintendent of the Gas Works, and is proven by him.

Respectfully submitted,

The Board of Gas Trustess.

By A. A. Franzheim, Secretary.

The accompanying account is one of the items, ranging in amounts from $252.30, the amount charged for 1,146 feet 10 inches of 14 inch gas pipe, at 22 cents, less 45 per cent discount, to items of 15, 20 and 22 cents. The usual discounts are allowed on all of these items, and the total amount of the charges less the discount, amounts to $759.01. A credit of $9.0 is allowed for 200 feet of 2 inch gas pipe at 7 cents, less 35 per cent. discount, which was returned by Mr. Seeley, leaving the total amount of the bill $749.01 sa stated in Secretary Franzheim's report. The bill runs from March 29, 1886, to October 19, 1887, and is sworn to by Superintendent Darrah before F. A. Woeber, Jr., N. P.

Following the reading of the communication, Mr. Seeley rose and stated that he had been informed several days ago that this action was to be taken, and that he had met with the Board of Gas Trustees and had talked the matter over with them with the board of Gas Trustees and had talked the matter over with them with the board of Gas Trustees and had talked the matter over with them with the board of Gas Trustees and had talked the matter over with them with the board of Gas Trustees and had talked the matter over with them with the view of arriving at the states and had talked the matter over with them with the w much ado, the amendment was concurred in. Another amendment made in the First Branch provided that those voting against the bridge loan should be allowed to express a preference for stone or steel as suited them. This amendmedt had a hard time getting through the skulls of nearly all the members, but was finally concurred in just to please the First. The ordinance was passed by its title, all members except Clyker voting ave. In the First, a petition faom Joseph Speidel and others, who business houses face on South street, asking that the Baltimore & Ohio be permitted to build a switch along the east side of South street, so their shipping may be facilitated, was referred to the Railrond Committee. A public from the Wheeling tated, was referred to the Railrond Com-mittee. A petition from the Wheeling Ice and Storage Company, asking the privilege of building a siding on Water street, was referred to the same com-mittee. The First concurred in all other matters sent in from the Second, except those mentioned elsewhere. When Mr. Seeley had finished, Mr. Davison moved that the matter be referred back to the Board with power to inake an amicable and equitable settlement with Mr. Seeley. Mr. Davison's motion was carried by an unanimous vote. The First Branch concurred by a like vote.

At the time the gas pipe and other plumbing material was taken by Mr. Seeley, as charged by Superintendent Darrah and shown on his memoranda, Mr. Seeley was President of the Board. The other members of that Board were Thomas E. Lewis and Frank P. Jepson. That Board was succeeded by one composed of Frank P. Jepson, Thomas E. Lewis and Henry Seamon, and that Board gave way last October to the present Board, which has presented this matter in the shape it is.

that he had met with the Board of Gas Trustees and had talked the matter over with them with the view of arriving at some quitable and amicable settlement of the difference. Mr. Seeley said further that he had supposed that there was an understanding between himself and the Board whereby this matter was to be kept quiet until he could have an opportunity to go over his books and accounts and make an investigation with a view of discovering as to the correctness of the account of the Board, and that he was at the present time engaged in making such investigation.

He said he had borrowed materials from the Board, just as other plumbers had, and as was customary among plumbers in the city. He had made it a rule to return such borrowed materials, but could not be positive whether the items charged had been returned or not. He said in conclusion that all be desired was time to get the matter straightened out so that it could be set tited.
